Davison Watches

are especially good value.
It's just this way about buying a watch: There are numerous makers of cases and numerous makers of movements—some good, some doubtful, some bad. The question is how is the layman to distinguish good from bad? The Davison watch is my guaranteed selection—14 karat gold, 14 pennyweight case—full jeweled nickel movement. The Men's size is $40—with absolute guarantee.

PLACED IN A VAULT.

Frank Myers Laid to Rest in Beautiful Glenwood Cemetery.

The remains of Benjamin Frank Myers, the amateur baseball player, who died Sunday at the Garfield Hospital from injuries received while playing a game of ball, as told in to-day's Morning Times, were placed in a vault at Glenwood Cemetry this afternoon.

The body, encased in a rosewood casket, was covered with flowers, the contribution of personal friends, among which was a handsome cross, placed at the head of the casket. This emblem was about four feet high, composed of the choicest flowers, in the center of which was the name, "Frank," in immortal letters.

Rev. Dr. Emmichhouse, of the Lutheran Church, corner of Sixth and P streets northwest, made an impressive address at the house and at the vault.

The pall-bearers were Edward Haines, Joseph Mills, Norman McElroy, J. B.
Bernard, Walter Crown, Bent Obedyke, Ed Marlow, Jas. Flynn.

THEY LEFT THE WAGON.

Thieves Only Stole the Front Wheels and the Shafts.

Mrs. T. E. Marsh, of No. 54 C street northeast, reports stolen from her house on Friday last a small black clock.

Thieves entered the store of Mr. D. W.
Beach, No. 717 Eighth street southeast, on Monday night by climbing through the transom of the store door. About $20 worth of tobacco and cigars and $3 worth of baseballs, dice and other small articles were lost.

The front wheels and shaft of G. W.
Thacker's wagon were unscrewed and carried off by thieves on the night of the 6th instant while the wagon was standing in the rear of his lot, corner of Fifth and Q streets northwest.

Left All to His Wife.

The will of George S. Parker was filed for probate to-day. Two codicils were attached to the paper. The will was dated January 30, 1889, and named the wife, Sophia A. Parker, executrix and sole beneficiary.

CLEVELAND ON PISTOLS

The President Comments on Concealed Weapons.

NO MERCY FOR OFFENDERS

Executive Clemency Denied Charles B. Terry, Who Is Serving a Term for Assault—Charles Bowee Will Also Have to Complete His Sentence—Other Cases Acted Upon.

The following applications for pardons, acted upon by the President, have been received at the White House:

Charles B. Terry, sentenced in the District of Columbia to three years in the Albany penitentiary for assault with intent to kill. In this case the President says:

"I am by no means certain that any clemency should be shown in this case, at any time or in any event."

Edward Scott, sentenced in the District of Columbia to 364 days in the United States Jail, Washington, D. C., for assault and carrying concealed weapons.
The President says:

"Carrying pistols, and using them on every possible pretext, and assault such as this convict committed, growing out of this pistol-carrying habit, ought in my opinion to be severely and firmly replied."

WILLIAM BRIGHT'S CAR RIDE

He Did Not Have a Nickel, so It Cost Him Two Dollars—Some Echoes from the Alleys—Wife Beater Given a Stiff Sentence—Drunks, Vagabonds and Disorderlies.

There were twenty-nine persons in the procession before Judge Kimball this morning.

Sarah Carter led the parade and was the first one up before his honor. She is a "Boston" belle who has only been out of the workhouse about three weeks, but she went back for ten days for being drunk and disorderly.

William Bright, a young white man, didn't have a cent, but he attempted to ride just the same on an Eckington car last night, and the trip cost him two dollars.

John Carroll, an old colored man, who had never been arrested before, had a misunderstanding with his wife. He explained matters in such a loud voice that Officer Farquhar, who is somewhat deaf, heard him a square and a half off.

The judge, however, took John's personal bonds to keep the peace and he went away beaming.

GREEKS AND PUSHCARTS.

Two dirty looking Greeks, whose names are unpronounceable, were fined $3 each for obstructing the sidewalk with pushcarts.

John Butler got Ella Fay's head under his arm in an altercation and proceeded to do her up in true pugilistic style.

"She struck me first," said the man.

Martha Thompson had her husband up for beating her. Thompson said his wife beat him, but the judge thought that Martha was entirely too small to be able to do any injury to her six-foot companion, and it cost him $10.

Lizzie Lee had a lot of clothes stolen from her by Minnie Thomas. Lizzie gave them to Minnie to hold for her last Saturday night. She went around the corner. Lizzie returned in a short while to claim the clothes, but Minnie declared that Lizzie was dreaming and had never given her any bundle.

The judge was unable to decide whether Minnie had the bundle or not.

"Turn that girl out," he said, and Minnie got off.

"Go on, you walking black-leg," is an epithet Mary Chase objects having applied to her daughter, and she therefore struck Ella Johnson over the head with a broomstick. The witnesses made considerable confusion in the case, and the judge took the matter under consideration.

TWO PROFANE COUNTRYMEN

Arnold Montgomery, a farmer, and his son were both under the influence of liquor and were charged with using bad language on the public highway. Five dollars each was the price they paid.

John Riggs struck another colored man with a whisky bottle—two whisky bottles, in fact—without any provocation whatever.
John Woodford was the complainant, with black coat plaster all over his face. James Green, William Stone and one or two other witnesses testified in behalf of Woodford.
Riggs also slapped and kicked James Green and Julia Ward. The judge gave him three months and $15.

Treasury Receipts.

The receipts from internal revenue today were $296,919, from customs, $425, 064, and miscellaneous, $48,656. The national bank notes received today for redemption amounted to $1,590,343.

THE TIMES DAILY WEATHER MAP.

(Prepared at the United States Weather Bureau.)

Forecast Till 3 p.m. Wednesday.

For Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, fair, preceded by cloudy and threatening weather on the coast today; light southerly winds, shifting to southeasterly; slightly cooler in New Jersey Wednesday morning.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, generally fair, preceded by cloudy and threatening weather; light southerly winds; no change in temperature.

Weather Conditions and General Forecast.

The barometer has risen, except in the upper Mississippi valley and near Lake Superior. An area of high pressure covers the districts east of the Mississippi, the center being off the middle Atlantic coast. A trough of relatively low pressure extends from Nebraska northeastward over Minnesota, attended by light local showers.

Local showers are also reported from southern New England, the south Atlantic coast, Tennessee and the lake region; elsewhere the weather continues fair.

The following heavy rainfalls, in inches, were reported:

HER DYING DECLARATION

Mrs. Bliss Asserted With Her Latest Breath She Had Been Poisoned.

Her Daughter Charged With the Murder, and a Sensational Coroner's Inquest Began This Morning.

New York, Sept. 10.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Evalina M. Bliss began this morning before Coroner O'Meagher in the coroner's courtroom in the new criminal court building.

Mrs. Bliss died at her home, 297 St. Nicholas avenue, on the night of Friday, August 30, from, it is alleged, poison sent to her in a chocolate by her daughter, Mary Alice Bliss, who is at present a prisoner in the Tombs.

Mrs. Fleming was brought into the coroner's office a little after 10 o'clock. She was in the custody of a policeman. She appeared to be in usually good spirits.
John C. Shaw, one of her counsel, met her in the coroner's private room and shook hands with her. They held an earnest conference for several minutes.

Coroner O'Meagher took his seat in court shortly after 11 o'clock and after swearing the jury, called as the first witness Dr. W. F. Buiman, who attended Mrs. Bliss.
Witness testified that he was summoned to Mrs. Bliss' residence the night she died—some time before Mr. Teubner.

"I found Mrs. Bliss lying on the bed," said he.

"What did she say to you?"

"Well, she said she was poisoned." Lawyer Buiman was on his feet in an instant. "I object to the admission of this evidence," said he. "It is entirely improper."

Mr. McIntire said it was a dying declaration.

Coroner O'Meagher, however, overruled Mr.
Brooke, and the witness was allowed to go on. "Mrs. Bliss," said the witness, "told me when I first came into the room that she was poisoned. She said to me:

"I am going to die. I am poisoned. A relative sent me some chocolate to-day and within ten minutes I began to vomit and purge. I had no one to send for a doctor. Then I asked her why she suspected a relative, and she replied:

"Because at my death the relative will inherit a large sum of money."

Witness added that, in his opinion, Mrs.
Bliss died from acute gastritis, caused by an irritant poison.

The next witness was Henry E. Bliss.
He testified that he lived on St. Nicholas avenue, with the deceased and his sister, Florence, twenty-six years old.

"When did you last see your mother alive?"

"On August 2." Witness added he went away on vacation and returned on August 31.

"When did you next see your mother?"

"I saw her in the coffin on that date."

The next witness was Police Officer Joseph Sawyer, of the West 125th street station.
He testified his attention was called to the case on Saturday, August 31, when he went to the flat in St. Nicholas avenue and saw there, among others, Mrs.
Fleming. Then he returned to the station-house and met his partner, William Moore.

Witness afterward paid a visit to the house and looked the door of the room where Mrs. Bliss lay. He and his partner went to the Colonial Hotel and removed certain articles. They watched Mrs. Fleming and went to the funeral in the same carriage with her.

WALLER DEPOSITION.

That Taken in Prison Is in the State Department's Hands.

The deposition of ex-Consul Waller taken by the representative of Ambassador Russell at Marshall prison, where Waller is confined, is in the hands of the State Department. It arrived in yesterday's mail and was under examination this morning by Acting Secretary Adee.

It is said that the deposition makes a strong representation of the alleged wrongful acts of the French court-martial, and will go far to clear up the case and the State Department in possession of all the facts.

There is some curiosity to know whether Mr. Waller, in all his essential facts, will agree with the statements made to the delegation by Paul Bert, which the French government has promised to deliver immediately upon its receipt by its foreign office.

Engineer Kirby Relieved.

A medical board having found Chief Engineer Kirby, of the battleship Texas, physically disabled for further duty, he has been ordered to leave the ship.

A. B. Smith has been ordered from the Montgomery to relieve him.

DUN ON A POSTAL CARD.

Colored Girl Arrested for Alleged Scurrilous Use of the Mails.

Susie Hutchinson, a colored girl employed at Huyler's, corner of Twelfth and F streets, was arrested by Deputy Marshal P. F. Cusick this morning, on a warrant, sworn out by Mr. William B.
Smith, of the Postoffice Department, charging her with sending scurrilous matter through the mails on a postal card.

Susie is the secretary of Auxiliary No.
43, Garfield Garrison, one of the most prominent organizations among the colored population of Washington. The postal card was addressed to Mrs. Anna Brown, No. 1400 Seventeenth street, and notified her that she had been dropped from the organization for conduct unbecoming a member.

The accused was taken before Commissioner Mills, who set her in $100 bond to answer to the grand jury.

Her employers appeared later and went on the bond.

APPEAL FOR BISMARCK.

Gerstenberg Going to the Law's End to Save His Dog.

The case of Mr. Ernest Gerstenberg's bull terrier Bismarck, who is now awaiting death at the hands of the first policeman who sees him beyond the limits of his master's premises, has finally found a permanent foothold in the upper courts.

George W. Albright, Gerstenberg's counsel, filed a formal application to-day for a writ of prohibition against Judge Ivory G. Kimball, of the police court, restraining him from causing to be carried out the sentence of death handed down by the police court against Bismarck.

Judge Cox promptly denied the petition when it was brought to his notice.

After the formal ruling of the court Mr.
Albright expressed his intention of noting an appeal from the judge's decision. He will doubtless do this in the course of a few days, in the meantime Bismarck remaining in seclusion.

To Build a Church.

A permit was obtained to-day by the trustees of the Fifth Street M. E. Church for the construction of their new house at the corner of Fifteenth and streets north-west.

LOUISVILLE'S GALA DAY

Quarter Million Veterans and Visitors Capture the City.

VETERAN JACK TARS MARCH

Local Military and Civic Organizations Marshal the Arriving Hosts Throughout the Town, and Lead the Picturesque Procession of Grizzled Naval Warriors and War Prisoners.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 10.—Louisville seems to be full of overflowing this morning, but the cry is still "they come," and by dark her hospitable citizens will have to the full the contract they have undertaken in inviting the boys in blue to cross the imaginary line and bivouac once again on Southern soil.

Rough estimates last night from the railroad and steamboat offices showed that fully a hundred thousand strangers had been brought in since noon on Sunday, but these figures were dwarfed a little later, when computations of the excusionists and veterans enroute from distant points or who had purchased tickets for early morning trains from points all over Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky reached a total in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million, to that by evening something more than three hundred thousand acceptances of Kentucky hospitality will have been registered in camps and schools, hotels, and private houses.

ALL TRAINS LATE.

All night long belated trains from the east and the south emptied themselves of loads of tired travelers, who lost no time in seeking their quarters for a few hours' rest.
Thousands of local people who were expecting relatives and friends waited patiently for hours and scanned the bulletin boards only to read the word "Late" in big letters before every train schedule, the delay ranging from three to ten hours. The railroad people say that they are doing the best they can, but the rash has thrown all calculations wrong.

The leading feature of to-day was the annual reunion and parade of the ex-sailors, and additional interest attached to the event from the fact that it is probably the last time that the Jacktars will be seen at a Grand Army encampment, since the organization favoring the holding of future conventions in the East, at dates best suited the majority of the members.

Edict was therefore given to to-day's prisoners of war and of the survivors of the celebrated Mississippi River marrines, which was put into service at Pittsburg and Cincinnati and took part in operations on the Mississippi, Yazoo, and Red rivers, as well as in the great naval battle before Memphis.

CHEERING THOUSANDS.

The line formed at 10 o'clock and moved over the city. Tens of thousands of spectators hedged the roadway and gave the marchers an enthusiastic reception.
Chief Marshal J. W. Hammond and the staff headed the column, with the Michigan Cavalry, and the Louisville Legion drum and bugle corps to announce the approach of the first division. This was composed of two companies of Indiana infantry and a battery, followed by six companies of the Louisville Legion.

Next in the line were several lodges of the United Knights of Pythias of this city, New Albany, Jeffersonville and other Indiana cities. The Juvenile Drill Corps and two companies of the United Knights of Honor led the ex-prisoners of war, and the team of Veterans, while a division composed of sons of Veterans who are enroute to their national encampment at Knockville acted as escort to the Naval Veterans. The latter turned out in fair numbers, and in their loose trousers, blue jackets, with broad white shoulder collars, and flat naval caps, presented a picturesque appearance.

TO BUILD TORPEDO BOATS.

Bids for Three Destroyers Opened at the Navy Department.

Secretary Herbert to-day opened bids for the construction of the three sea-going torpedo boats authorized by the last naval appropriation bill.

The cost of the vessels, complete, armor, etc., was limited to $175,000 each, and the act provided for the construction of one on the Mississippi river, one of the Pacific coast and one on the Gulf.

The Union Iron Works, of San Francisco, offered the lowest bid for the vessel for the Mississippi river, at $173,000, and three for $172,000 each.

Wolf & Zweicker Iron Works, of Portland, Ore., offered to construct one vessel for $188,700.

Morgan Bros. Company, of Seattle, Wash., bid $163,350 for one boat.

These offers were to be built on plans furnished by the Navy Department.

The Herreshoff Manufacturing Company, of Bristol, R. I., the yacht-building firm, offered to construct one or all three of the vessels at $184,000 each.

Bids for plans prepared by the company, which were submitted with the bids.

Gold Reserve Decreasing.

The Treasury gold reserve to-day is officially stated at $98,894,666, subject to a deduction of $1,200,000 withdrawn yesterday for export. The loss from natural causes exclusive of amount taken for export, since yesterday is $16,000.

Its Fifty-ninth Anniversary.

The Washington Light Infantry will celebrate its fifty-ninth anniversary on Thursday evening of this week. There will be a dress parade, review and other exercises, the whole to conclude with dancing. An enjoyable programme is in course of preparation.

Nearly a Half Million Failure.

New York, Sept. 10.—A special dispatch to the Herald from Montreal says:
"The firm of S. Frank Mooney & Co., leather merchants of Montreal and St.
Hyacinth, has assigned on the demand of Mr. James H. Wardlaw, and an abandonment of the case will make this morning's The liabilities are, direct and indirect, estimated at about $400,000. The assets are not definitely known, but they will probably be small."

Advance of Prices and Wages.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—A conference of Eastern and Western window glass manufacturers was held at the Auditorium yesterday, and it was decided to advance the prices of window glass 5 and 10 per cent. to cover the advances in wages and in raw material.

His Name Discovered.

Paris, Sept. 10.—The police have ascertained that the name of the man in custody who attempted to explode a bomb in the Rothschild's bank a few days ago is Victor Dolay.

GARBAGE PLANS DELAYED

This Time It Is Because of a Technical Hitch in the Bond.

Mr. Warfield Has Been Unable to Have It Completed and the Whole Matter Is Given a Setback.

The report which it was announced would be made to-day by the Commissioners of the propositions submitted by the garbage crematory companies to Mr.
Joshua Warfield, the contractor, has been postponed on account of the delay in the preparation of the bonds required.

There should have been a meeting in Baltimore yesterday for the delivery of the bonds, but it is alleged that neither of the companies was represented there, and the information was obtained this morning that a second date has been fixed for the conference.

It is understood that the filing of a bond of indemnity with Mr. Warfield is a contingency upon which he himself will be able to obtain security on his bond under the garbage contract.

The life of the garbage contract in question begins with the 1st of November, and it is very much to be desired that the crematory plant, or plants, shall be ready at that time for a practical test.
